

Hurricane Milton

STILL NEED HOME REPAIRS?

Funding is still available in our area.

If your home was damaged during Hurricane Milton and you need long-term recovery assistance, help is still available for residents of Polk County. Resources are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis, so don't wait to get the help you need. Eligibility will be verified.

To connect with Rebuilding Together Greater Florida, scan the code to the left or visit rtgfl.org/get-help/ to apply.

To connect with Inspiritus, scan the QR code to the right or call (404) 875-0201 ext. 1023.

SPONSORED BY

Hurricane Milton

STILL NEED HOME REPAIRS?

Funding is still available in our area.

If your home was damaged during Hurricane Milton and you need long-term recovery assistance, help is still available for residents of Polk County. Resources are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis, so don't wait to get the help you need. Eligibility will be verified.

To connect with Rebuilding Together Greater Florida, scan the code to the left or visit rtgfl.org/get-help/ to apply.

To connect with Inspiritus, scan the QR code to the right or call (404) 875-0201 ext. 1023.

SPONSORED BY

Rebuilding Together Greater Florida (501c3 Nonprofit)

This nonprofit helps homeowners affected by hurricanes with free home repairs and renovations, including structural damage, roof replacements, plumbing, and electrical repairs. They also provide accessibility modifications for elderly and disabled residents. They work with homeowners (not renters) and cannot repair mobile homes built before 1976. Visit rtgfl.org/get-help/ for info.

Inspiritus (501c3 Nonprofit) Inspiritus' focus is providing long-term recovery assistance for families and individuals with unmet needs following a natural disaster. Inspiritus' work includes assisting and managing home repairs and construction, assessing each family's or individual's comprehensive needs and ensuring those needs are met. weinspirit.org/disaster-relief

Compiled by the Polk Milton Recovery Committee as a resource for storm-impacted individuals. This information reflects the latest available data and is not an endorsement of any organization.

Rebuilding Together Greater Florida (501c3 Nonprofit)

This nonprofit helps homeowners affected by hurricanes with free home repairs and renovations, including structural damage, roof replacements, plumbing, and electrical repairs. They also provide accessibility modifications for elderly and disabled residents. They work with homeowners (not renters) and cannot repair mobile homes built before 1976. Visit rtgfl.org/get-help/ for info.

Inspiritus (501c3 Nonprofit) Inspiritus' focus is providing long-term recovery assistance for families and individuals with unmet needs following a natural disaster. Inspiritus' work includes assisting and managing home repairs and construction, assessing each family's or individual's comprehensive needs and ensuring those needs are met. weinspirit.org/disaster-relief

Compiled by the Polk Milton Recovery Committee as a resource for storm-impacted individuals. This information reflects the latest available data and is not an endorsement of any organization.